

ACT February 15, 2012 "Business" Meeting

Meeting Update Wednesday, Feb. 15th From Jim

The Mayor has notified that they have changed the Council meeting to Wednesday and he will be unable to attend our meeting.

This is not bad news because it will allow us to inform you of some important happenings:

Legislative: Update you on the status and battle for HB 2693 "Construction Contract Risk Transfer Insurance Reform." Risk Transfer is one of the most dangerous clauses in a construction contract for both our subcontractors and material suppliers.

Law Alert: Also speaking on insurance clause ACT's attorney, Eric Hawkins, Durazzo & Eckel, will discuss the dangers of "WRAP Policies" and why you can result in paying for two policies.

Tucson Mexico EXPO: That's right, I said Mexico. There will be no Suppliers' Council or Ambassador Club meeting this month. We will go into the details of our partnership with the Tucson Chamber of Commerce and what it will mean for all our members. For the first time the EXPO will be open to the general public that need construction services and to Mexico businesses that will be attending to make contact with ACT Suppliers that do or want to do business in Mexico. This will not be a typical Home Show!

Make your reservations today! Don't miss this meeting!!
